These levels are defined by HIPAA, but are used for all research across the University.

These levels are often connected to the type of IRB review a study receives.

These are the identifiers you can have in each type of dataset.

Dates could be birth date, admission date, date of service, death date, etc.

IDENTIFIABLE dataset

LIMITED dataset

DE-IDENTIFIED dataset

For more information, contact the University of Utah IRB.